

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

Applications are Invited from International Students for our PGDM Programmes.

With over 1000 plus students collectively highlighting different backgrounds ranging from sports and culture to education, gender and geography, FORE School of Management (FSM), New Delhi have been making it a point to help PGDM students gain from a richly diverse environment- both within and outside its classrooms. Students from different backgrounds and with varied experiences come together at FSM. It is more than just knowledge sharing on a robust platform. It is an exchange of ideas, opinions, ideologies, perspectives, and much more. Students at FSM gain knowledge, develop skills and grow. They get exposed to a range of cultural influences. They learn to respect and value diversity and difference with grace and confidence.

In its endeavour to enrich the diversity further the Institute invites application for its Two-Year Full-Time Post Graduate Diploma in Management Programmes from International Students.

ABOUT FORE

Established in 1992, FORE School of Management (FSM), New Delhi, is functioning under the aegis of the Foundation for Organisational Research and Education (FORE). FSM has been setting benchmarks in management education for the last 32 years. This is aptly reflected in the top rankings by leading B-Schools' surveys of the country. The National Board of Accreditation has accredited the PGDM and PGDM (IB) programmes till June 2025. We are pleased to inform you that we have also received the NBA Accreditation for PGDM (FM) for a period of 3 Years i.e. up to June 30, 2026. FSM has been granted SAQS Accreditation for a period of five years till Sep 2028. The Institute has a Board of Directors and an Academic Council with government, academic institutions, and industry representatives. FSM takes pride in its professional and high-quality faculty in the fields of General Management, Strategic Management, Human Resource Management, Finance, Operations, Marketing, IT, Economics, and International Business.

DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

One of the top management schools in India and one of the oldest is the FORE School of Management (FSM). Its roots can be found in its remarkable legacy, distinctive parentage, wonderful campus location, and sizable and well-respected alumni community. Intending to add rigor and relevance to the tasks it undertakes, the institution has grown over time to become recognized as one of India's top management institutions. It aspires to continue growing in academic excellence, whether in research and teaching, training and consulting, or policy advisory. Being at the forefront of the ideal synthesis of theory and practice, quality research direction, and research output that produces excellence and quality is FSM as an institution.

We look forward to having a diverse pool of students, as we envision building a cohort of globally coherent and connected professionals. Our IIP program is a testimony to this belief. FSM is a great fit for overseas students because we aim to create transformative leaders who are motivated to change the world. Our overseas students can anticipate receiving extensive assistance before their arrival on campus. This support is maintained for the duration of their encounter and while they get ready to go forward.

At FSM, we value a deep-rooted commitment to diversity and inclusion. We will constantly look to welcome students into our community who have distinct experiences and backgrounds. We are honored when our students visit FSM. We are aware of how critical it is for our students to comprehend and interact with individuals from diverse cultural backgrounds to develop into capable corporate leaders and global citizens.

We truly believe in the philosophy of standing together as a community to support each other and to use a clear voice to affirm our values. FSM was founded to create the leaders for tomorrow, and it has stood the test of time in delivering its promises. We create industry-ready and globally transformational professionals.

Now more than ever, we are honored to have this heritage. FSM takes very seriously its commitment to provide an educational experience that produces morally and socially responsible global leaders as part of our great tradition and as we continue to build our community. The professors, staff, and students at FSM strive daily to uphold a culture of decency, justice, and respect for everyone to promote that goal. We invite you to work with us to create a world that is even more powerful, responsible, captivating, and enriching.

We look forward to seeing you here at FORE School of Management.
